About

Our award-winning F37 Bolton has gained some weight! F37 Bolton font sports characteristically minimal, flat ascenders and descenders.

Inspired by Günter Gerhard Lange's stripped-back Schoolbook typeface, F37 Bolton is an ideal choice for body copy and smaller print sizes thanks to its simple aesthetic.

F37 Bolton's distinctive characters are flat, perfectly horizontal ascenders and descenders. This is an unusual approach, but it underpins F37 Bolton's uncompromising simplicity. Along with the weights and italics, F37 Bolton is also supplied as a variable font. Comprising of 2 variable axes (Width and Slant), the 20 styles and its combined 10560 characters are now stored in a single font file, providing a convenient package for limitless design possibilities.
