About

F37 Stout is a digitisation of a wonderful old American letterpress font we came across called Stoutheart. We loved the really unusual way the angular letterform shapes juxtapose with the circular counters. There's something really compelling and evocative about the way it looks.

Originally a caps-only font, we've designed and crafted a matching lowercase, as well as expanding the font into a range of over 20 different weights.

Distinctive, bold and memorable, F37 Stout is just the job for headlines that need to pack a punch. F37 Stout is also a variable font — that is, a single font file with weight variations for multiple outputs.
